1. Introduction

The Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) has replaced the Data Protection Act 1998; it came into force on 25th May 2018.

The General Data Protection Regulation 2018 (GDPR) is the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data. The GDPR was adopted in the UK on 14th April 2016, came fully into force on 25th May 2018 and is to be adhered to, alongside the Data Protection Act 2018.

The GDPR is designed to cover the collecting, storing, processing and distribution of personal data. It gives rights to individuals about whom information is recorded. This applies to all individuals whether they are employees, elected/appointed members, or a member of the public.

Employees and Board Members of the Danvm Drainage Commissioners (hereafter referred to as 'the Board') have a duty to be aware of the GDPR principles to comply with the law on data protection.

2. Data Protection Principles & General Data Protection Regulation Responsibilities

To meet the requirements of the Data Protection Act 2018, the Board fully endorses the eight principles contained therein, adhering to them at all times.

These principles are:

- Personal data shall be processed fairly and lawfully and, in particular, shall not be processed unless specific conditions are met.
- Personal data shall be obtained only for one or more specified and lawful purposes and shall not be further processed in any way incompatible with that or those purposes.
- Personal data shall be adequate, relevant, and not excessive in relation to the purpose or purposes for which they are processed.
- Personal data shall be accurate and where necessary be kept up to date.

- Personal data processed for any purpose or purposes shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for that purpose or those purposes.
- Personal data shall be processed in accordance with the rights of the data subject under the Act.
- Appropriate technical and organisational measures shall be taken against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal data.
- Personal data shall not be transferred to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area unless that country or territory ensures an adequate level of protection for the rights and freedom of data subjects in relation to the processing of personal data.

To meet the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation 2018, the Board fully endorses the main responsibilities as set out in Article 5, adhering to them at all times.

Your data will be:

- Processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to individuals.
- Collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes; further processes for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes shall not be considered to be incompatible with the initial purposes.
- Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed.
- Accurate and where necessary be kept up to date; every reasonable step must be taken to ensure that personal data that is inaccurate, having regard to the purposes for which it is processed, is erased or rectified without delay;
- Kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data is processed; personal data may be stored for longer periods insofar as the personal data will be processed solely for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes subject to implementation of the appropriate technical and organisational measures required by the GDPR in order to safeguard the rights and freedoms of individuals; and
- Processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction, or damage, using appropriate technical or organisational measures.

3. The Board's Commitment to the Data Protection Act & the General Data Protection Regulation
